WELCOME TO OUR READING

Let's read the whole New Testament together this year. With one chapter a day, we can hear it all. Let's listen to all the words of Jesus, his parables with their settings in our familiar world and his words of power as he heals the sick and raises the dead. Walk with him to the cross and hear the centurion say, "Surely, this was the Son of God." Then run with the women and the disciples to the empty tomb on Easter and see that he really has risen from the dead.

We will also read all the letters in the New Testament. We'll read Paul's many words of comfort, reminding us that God is always with us and nothing is able to separate us from the love of God.

Besides the New Testament readings each weekday, we will read from the Old Testament on the weekends. On Saturday, we'll read Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, the books of Old Testament wisdom. The wisdom of God fills column after column with advice you can trust. Then we will also read all of the Psalms, hearing the voice of David and many others expressing faith in God. God bless your reading of his word.
